'Under cover' wheels

The practical tyre bags from Rameder

When situations get dirty, it often takes an 'undercover mission' to get them under control. At least, this is the ideal way for used wheels and tyres to infiltrate the underworld of your cellar 'with a clean vest'. Rameder, Europe's largest provider of vehicle accessories, now offers four premium wheel covers for just 15.99 euros.

Thanks to the integrated handles as well as a maximum outer diameter of 62 cm and a width of 22.5 cm, even the 'big boys' of the tyre world can be dealt with easily. Or in other words: even 18-inch rims will fit perfectly. And if the water-repellent bags get dirty during the job, all the visible evidence can be made to disappear with a 30-degree machine wash.

The wheel covers can be bought from the Rameder online shop at www.rameder.eu: an offer that is hard to resist.
